The Palladium

Ancient Trojans were protected by a golden statue of the goddess Pallas Athena, which fell to them from heaven. They believed that the statue, which came to be known as Palladium, kept their city safe, and that as long as it remained with them, Troy could not fall. To the ancient Trojans, their statue was a symbol of unity and strength, qualities which the yearbook staff would like this book to mean to you.

Welcome back festivities include traditional assembly, game, dance

Courtyard Adorned with New Kiosk

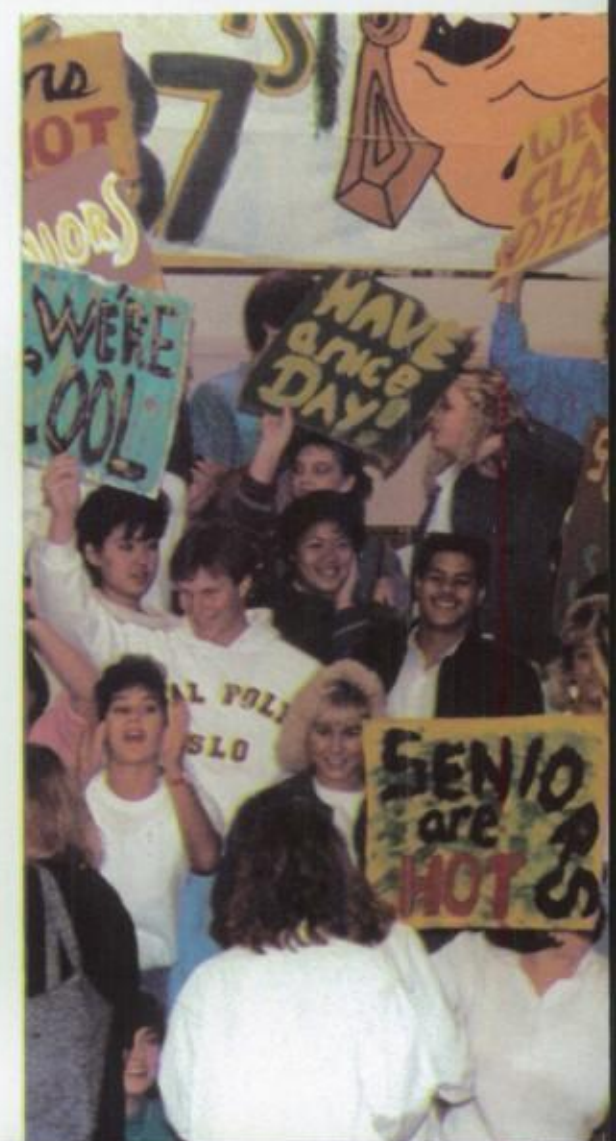

Did you wonder last fall what the octagon-shaped building in the courtyard was? It was the new kiosk, used for many activities during the school year.

The kiosk was ordered built by the Campus Beautification Committee to be used by various school clubs for program distribution and general announcements. It was also used for pre-sale tickets to plays, musicals, dances, and many sports activities.

Funds from the Campus Beautification Committee supported the building of the kiosk. Many community members and parents helped to build it, including John Lewis, Doug Tegner, Jack Vanderbilt, and the president of Parent, Student, Staff, Association (PSSA), Jim Heater, who headed the project. Branson Cross Lumber donated most of the wood and roofing materials.

Pie eating, apple bobbing, pumpkin carving, sponge throwing draw many contestants

Halloween Popular as Ever

On Friday, Oct. 31, the annual Halloween festivities took place in the courtyard during lunch time.

The students started getting ready for all the activities, such as the costume contest, pumpkin carving, apple bobbing, pie eating, and sponge throwing during third period. The members of the classes, all active clubs on campus, and the second period classes were among the participants.

The pumpkin carvers sat on the steps in a row, and created all kinds of faces. The freshman class came in first place with a pumpkin carved by Rachel Maddow and Kim Wallace. Senior Elie Young dove into a bowl of water and took out an apple in her mouth 1.44 seconds later, making her winner of the apple bobbing contest. Markus Luck was the fastest one to finish his pie while keeping his hands behind his back.

A swishy aerobic instructor, Sean Moynihan, won the costume contest by "instructing" the audience in his techniques. At the sponge throwing contest, every class president was the target of the sponges thrown by students who had bought tickets. Sophomore Class President, Kimiya Funtanilla, and Junior Class President, Greg Melin, seemed to be good targets.

The organizers for this festivity were the commissioners of special projects: Rob Six and Stephanie Salle.

Second annual event

Career Fair Held November 20

Castro Valley High School's Career Fair was held Thursday, Nov. 20, from 6-9 p.m. in the gym. The purpose of this year's Career Fair was to assist students in making career decisions by exposing them to as many vocational and professional career areas as possible.

Over seventy representatives from specific careers were divided into six broad career styles: investigative (veterinarians, physicians, engineers), artistic (musicians, fashion designers, architects), social (travel agents, social workers, teachers), enterprising (business executives, lawyers, T.V. producers), conventional (court reporters, data processors, accountants), and realistic (carpenters, plumbers, auto mechanics).

Speakers included three scientists from the Lawrence Livermore Labs, airplane pilots and flight attendants from TWA, broadcasting and communication directors from KRON-TV, models, a photographer from Time magazine, a film editor from channel 2, a disc jockey from KYUU, a member of the California Highway Patrol, a judge, and a marriage counselor. Many of the representatives were Castro Valley High alumni.

We celebrate 30 years of Castro Valley High School

1957—1987

The pictures on these pages were taken from the first Castro Valley High School yearbook in 1957. When the school opened its doors in the fall of 1956 there were only three grade levels, consequently no graduating class of 1957. (The 12th graders were allowed to remain at Hayward High to complete their senior year.) The school was still under construction, and bulldozers could be seen moving between the wings during class time. The cafeteria and gymnasium were not opened until the spring of 1957, the 500 wing not even started until 1960.

What's happening over vacation?

Events Fill Holiday Season

Ah, its finally here! Yes, folks, winter vacation has arrived. What are your plans for these two weeks of true bliss? Most people answered "Absolutely nothing!" while others said working, shopping, sleeping, partying, and watching soap operas.

R.J. Kirkland, senior, stated with a smile, "I am going on a cruise to Mexico." The majority of students did not have such an exotic answer to the question. Sophomore Dennis Skoldquist, exclaimed, "I am going to practice my drums." These two weeks provide excellent time for a lot of practicing musicians to get their act together and jam seriously without worrying about school the next day.

San Francisco and Stoneridge Mall in Pleasanton are the most popular places with students to shop for gifts for family and friends. Heidi Vane, senior, reveals, "I am going to get my picture taken on Santa's lap with Patty and I am going to Macy's on Union Square to see the animated displays in the windows."

For those of you who want to catch up on concerts happening this vacation, there is a wide variety of upcoming shows. Tonight, Yugwie Malunsteen's Rising Force is blowing into the Henry J. Kaiser Center in Oakland. Journey fans can experience the long-awaited Bay Area return of this super group tomorrow and Sunday night at the Cow Palace in San Francisco. Huey Lewis & the News is ending the year with a string of four concerts at the Oakland Coliseum. And for you rockers out there, Stryper is playing at the San Jose Civic Auditorium on Dec. 31.

Closer to home, Keith Geis and Mike McBride, both freshmen stated, "We will be chilling over vacation," while Colleen Cowl, art teacher, replied "I'll be working part-time at Emporium-Capwell's and then I'll just relax."

"Crystal Club" Set as Theme for Winter Ball

Among the many winter activities at Castro Valley High School is the annual Winter Ball. This year's event was held on January 9 in the cafetorium from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. with the theme of "The Crystal Club," a take off on the jazz age Cotton Club. Each year a theme is picked and is supposed to be carried out. Students were disappointed, in general, in the attempts that were made to make last year's Winter Ball a "Winter Luau." This year's theme was voted on by the Olympian staff and the Ski Club officers, co-sponsors of the event. The newspaper staff was in charge of the publicity; the Ski Club was in charge of all of the decorations and refreshments.

As usual, the dress was semi-formal. During the dance, pictures were made available by Garibaldi Studio in the teachers' lunch room.

Another concern among the students in advance, was about the DJ's for the dance. There was no need to worry, as the Olympian staff and the Ski Club chose a reliable one with a history of very successful dances. Request lists were available when bids were purchased.

'87 Fashion Show Comes Early

This year's fashion show was held on Wednesday, Feb. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the C.V. cafeteria. The reason the fashion show was held earlier this year was to allow parents and students to get a chance to preview formal dress attire for the Senior Ball and Junior Prom. Also featured were costumes considered appropriate for "Grad Nite" at Disneyland.

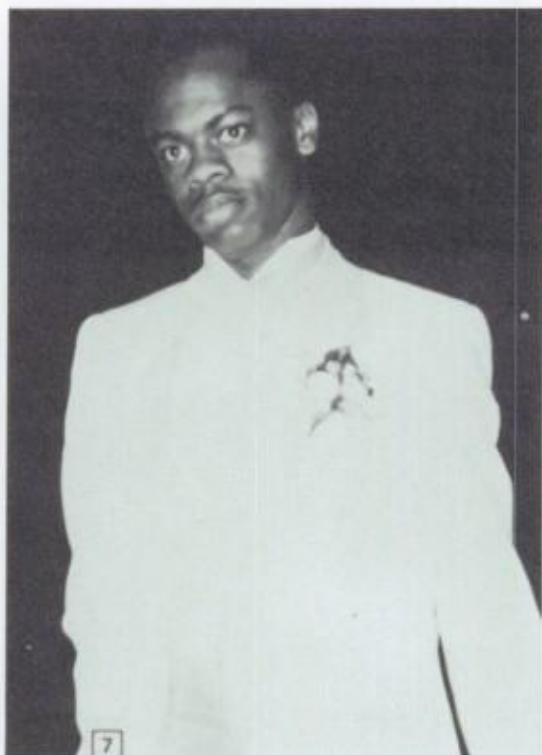

Dresses for this event were donated by bridal shops such as Kay's, Holiday and Nina's and tuxedos from Gingiss and Selix Formalwear. Other stores, including Daughtrey's, Emporium-Capwell's, and Spirit, made donations as well.

Corsages and boutonnieres were donated by leading florists around Castro Valley including, Castro Valley Florist, Gigi's Flower Shop, and Karen's Flower Kottage.

Models for this year's fashion show included students from the Journalism class, as well as others. The cafeteria was transformed into a romantic setting once again by the deft hand of parent, Kathy Peterson.

Trot Stampedes with Successful Results

For the third straight year senior Markus Luck won the Trojan Trot held in early March. Thirteen people beside Luck competed to have the title of "the true warrior of ancient Troy:" John Henderson, senior; Paul Padavana junior; Mark Wallace, sophomore; Paul Anderson, senior; Rob Six, senior; Mario Ysit, junior; Matt Johanson, junior; Scott Bunney, senior; Ted Massler, freshman; Justin Garbanaski, freshman; Greg Hastings, freshman; Donna Ferrell, senior; and Kelly Konhoff, junior.

The entrants to this event had to start at the courtyard stage and run to the courtyard side of the gym; jump 4 hurdles; jump through the tires by 600 hall; run into the cafetorium, up the stage, and pop a balloon on a chair by sitting on it; run over to 200 hall; ride a tricycle from the 200 hall to the 300 hall snack bar; run around the gym by the JV tennis courts, through the 600 hall and back to 200 hall; do five push-ups; and finally eat a banana.

The competition ended with third place going to John Henderson and second place to Mark Wallace. For the girls, Ferrell received first place and Konhoff won second place.

Brewer deposed as "King of Trivia"

CSF Sponsors Annual Trivial Pursuit Game

On November 7, C.V.'s California State Scholarship Federation sponsored the Third Annual Trivial Pursuit competition. C.S.F., supervised by Ruth Gasser, math teacher, has run the competition since 1984. For the past two years, the champion was Peter Brewer, English teacher. "I've been playing the game for only two and a half years now. I'm amazed I did as well as I did," said Brewer. When asked about his skill in winning the game for the past two years, he replied, "Skill?? That was nothing but luck; luck with the dice, luck with the questions, and luck that the other players lost." Brewer hoped he would not lose this year but said, "Every dog has his day."

Indeed, his day came! He was upset by Doug Simpkinson and Matt Reed, the new "Kings of Trivia."

Galaxy I makes bid for C.V. location

Will CV be Home of New Teen Club?

What is there to do in Castro Valley besides go to the Chabot theater or rent movies? Nothing? Right! This may change in the future. Castro Valley might become the home to Galaxy I, a new dance-club/recreation center. It would be focused toward ending the loitering and cruising on Castro Valley Boulevard and would give teens something to do in a non-alcoholic, drug-free atmosphere. The possible site for Galaxy I would be on San Miguel Ave., in the former Crook's Boats store.

The dance club is up against some tough competition, however. It is plagued with problems like parking, limiting age groups, and loitering, all of which must be ironed out before the club could be approved or opened.

The force behind this project is 19 year-old Chabot College student, Joseph Scott. Scott is backed by the Ken H. Earp Investment Company of which he is an employee. Scott has achieved the backing of Castro Valley Chamber of Commerce, the Drug-Task force, and the Municipal Advisory Council. Scott plans to see this project succeed, if not in Castro Valley then somewhere else like Walnut Creek, San Leandro, or San Jose.

Henderson's goal for year is to boost school spirit

ASB Working Hard for Fun

Just like every other year, this year's Executive Cabinet is working hard to make this year a fun-filled, money-making school year. There have been a lot of changes since last year. Working in remodeled room 313, A.S.B. President, John Henderson, feels good about the outlook for the 1986-1987 school year. "This year's cabinet is hard working and enthusiastic!" says Henderson.

Headed by Adviser, Ann Thorpe, the A.S.B. Cabinet is continuously working to set up the activities for this year. So far things have gone smoothly for the cabinet. In September A.S.B.'s Fall Festival Sno-cone booth and the Welcome Back Dance both brought in nice profits for the school.

Editorial Opinion

Working Is Education !

In the February, 1987, C.V.H.S. Newsletter, Principal Nancy Spaeth, in her monthly message, made commentary of the effects of adolescent employment on school work and referred to Ellen Greenberger and Lawrence Steinberg's book When Teenagers Work: The Psychological and Social Costs of Adolescent Employment. She cited what may be a truism: that students with outside jobs may not be doing as well as possible in school. And while we at the Olympian understand that is a possibility, we strongly disagree with the idea that maintaining a job forces students to grow up too fast. How fast will students have to grow up when they are thrust out into the world at age eighteen with virtually nothing to rely upon but the theatrical knowledge he or she may or may not have gained in the classroom?

Spaeth also reported that it is harder to maintain authority and control over students with jobs, cars, and an independent source of income. We believe that it is the duty of a school to guide students into the world, and that if this is properly done, there will be no need for great amounts of control the principal seems to suggest are necessary. According to the research Spaeth quoted, students who work tend toward the use of drugs. If this were not suggested in a serious manner, such a gross generalization would be entirely laughable.

We also pose this question: how will this policy affect students who are not traditionally scholastic achievers in the first place? Those students who do not do well in school often gain great satisfaction and education by having the job that the principal would ask their parents to deny them.

Aside from these points though, there is an even darker side to what the principal is suggesting - that all there is to life is getting into a good college or having a respectable job. It has been the experience of many graduates we know, that the job they had has helped when entering the job market or applying to those "good colleges."

Education translated directly from the Latin means "to bring forth from darkness." The Olympian staff feels that the policy the principal is espousing is contradictory to the meaning of that very word and should be taken with a hefty grain of salt.

our future is here

Do You Have College Questions?

As the due dates for college applications draw to a close, many questions pop into the minds of stressed, frantic students. Probably the most common question that really creates anxiety more than anything else is, "Will I get in?" That question is really a question that only the students can answer, for only they know how hard they have worked and what grades they received.

Financial aid is a topic that is on most college-bound seniors' minds. "How do I get it?" Most students want to know. The best advice that counselors can give is to fill out the local scholarship application form, read the senior bulletins, and listen closely to the daily bulletin for scholarship information.

A question that often comes to the Career Center is, "Does the college I want to go to have my major?" The best way to answer this question is to check out the EUREKA program in the Career Center. This computer can answer these questions plus a lot more. It can give undecided seniors a little more information and possibly point them in the right direction.

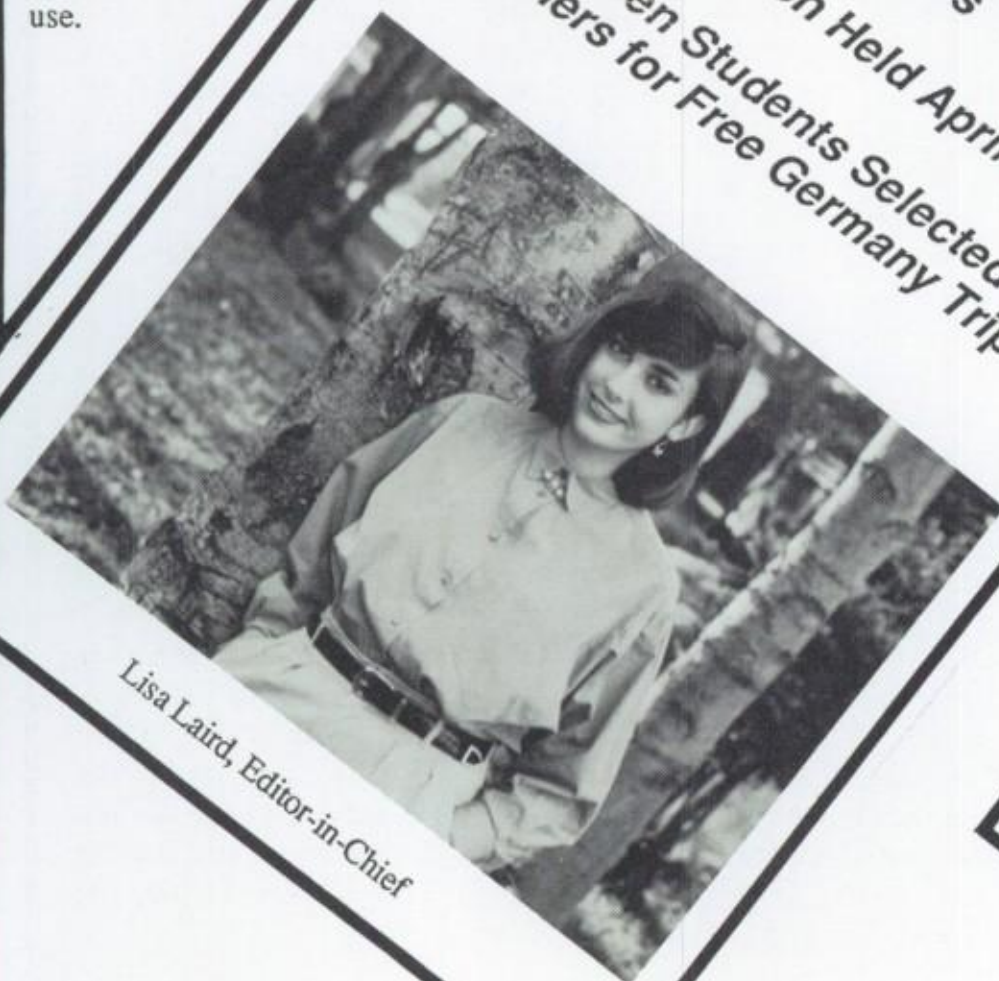

Many seniors don't understand what an impacted program is. For those who don't know, an impacted program is an over-crowded major: a major that has many applicants but not many positions or space. These programs are usually very, very competitive and a student must be the cream of the crop. However, a major that is impacted at one school may not be at another; therefore, it is important to shop around. Before students create stress by worrying too much about where they are going to attend college or what they are going to major in, they should get the facts. They can go to the Career Center and work through the EUREKA program, and check out college catalogs. Also, they should stop by the Counseling Center and check out the scholarship bulletin board and become acquainted with Mickey Miller, the counseling secretary.

"Pros-for-Kids" Hold Assembly

On Monday Nov. 3, two assemblies were held at Castro Valley High School by "Pros for Kids," a non-profit organization, to present a message about the danger of drug abuse. The two 45 minute assemblies were held back to back during students' second period classes. Students were divided into two groups and attended the assembly at different time schedules. The assembly included short speeches by three professional athletes and a performance by the 49ers cheerleaders. The assembly combined entertainment with the presentation of a message to the students. The athletes spoke about the effect drugs can have on a person's life. The assembly was only a small part of the total program. The program also provided for someone to be in the Counseling Center on campus twice a week from the time of the assemblies until Christmas to talk to interested students. The program included lessons on drug abuse and prevention for students in health and driver's education classes. The organization was started by several former pro athletes who had serious drug problems. When they got off drugs and changed their lives, they noticed that other people had gotten into drugs the same way. They decided to bring their personal message to high schools and junior high schools in order to contradict the message of today's society which says, "It is okay to drink and use drugs." The goal of this program is to reduce abuse in secondary youth, to improve student performance and behavior, and to create awareness of the public's responsibility for reducing drug use.

SADD, DTF Sponsor Lewis Concert Contest

Soon the winner of the Huey Lewis concert tickets will be announced. This contest has been sponsored by S(tudents) A(against) D(runk) D(riving) and the Drug Task Force to make people aware of the problems that are all around, and also to award one outstanding person for deciding not to use drugs or alcohol. The tickets were purchased with contributions from the Castro Valley Lions Breakfast Club and community donations through the Castro Valley Prevention Planning Project.

The way students went about getting the tickets was to write, in 50 word or less, something important in their lives that has influenced their decision not to use drugs or alcohol. That "something" might have been a hobby, a goal, an ambition, another person, an experience, a belief, or whatever helped them decide not to take the risks with alcohol or drugs. From the wide success the S.A.D.D. club and D.T.F. had promoting this contest and the popularity of Huey Lewis and the News, the entries for the contest have been plentiful. The winner and his two guests will attend the "Hip to be Square" concert in December at the Oakland Coliseum. Undoubtedly one of the many songs to be sung will be the well known song by that title, which gives the same message that the S.A.D.D. and Drug Task Force are trying to present.

Rotary is parent group to Interact Club

Interact Contributes 10,000 Books to Help Mexico

The Interact Club handed over approximately 10,000 books the members collected in October to give to a school in Mexico. The books they collected have been donated to a school the Castro Valley and San Leandro Rotary clubs have built in Mijuantenijo, a town in rural Mexico. The San Leandro Rotary Club started the project of building the school in 1983. Superintendent Robert Hagler gave them to Mexican Public Affairs Officer, Sandra Calderon, who accepted the books on behalf of the Mexican government. Also present were Interact President, Rodney Tucknott, and Rotary representative Jerry Green. The students in Mexico are going to use the books to learn English and other skills. The books donated by the CVUSD were old text books no longer used by C.V. schools, but still in good condition.

The C.V. Rotary Club sponsors the Interact Club's activities and helps them out in many ways. "Rotary has been very helpful," stated Interact supervisor, Jerry Rose. Interact's activities are based around carrying out good deeds for individual and group needs. Rose said he "looks for the type of students who really care" to take part in the Interact Club.

Interact Club President, Tucknott, summed up his feelings when he said, "The Interact Club has done an outstanding job collecting and arranging this event. I feel very good that we are able to share the privileges of readable English texts with students in Mexico."

Interact collects "Toys for Tots" Santa Claus in CVHS Send Surprises to Children

Christmas: candles, candies, greeting cards, fireplaces, laughter, happiness, surprises . . . Christmas is such a joy—especially for little kids. But there are in California, indeed in this whole country, poor people who just can't afford to buy presents for their children. That's why the Interact Club sponsored "Toys for Tots."

"Toys for Tots" is a program Castro Valley High School has been involved in for the past couple of years. It is a program that collects toys from students, teachers, and staff members and then sends them to the United States Marine Corps Reserve. They are then sent to the churches which distribute the toys to the families.

This year the Marines came to the school on December 2 to collect the toys, over 700 donations, which is twice as large as the record of 350 last year. The toys were received in room 214, every day of the week until the deadline, November 26. Among the donations were stuffed animals, puzzles, books, frisbees, skateboards, shoes and all kinds of games. The donator of the huge Wily Coyote was freshman, Kim Wallace. "One of the nicest things is doing something for somebody without reward. It makes me feel so good," said Jerry Rose, club advisor, with a big smile.

My week in D.C.

CloseUp Up Close

Washington D.C.—we all know that it's our nation's capital, but how many of us know what the city is really like and how it works? Recently I had the chance to visit Washington D.C. for a week on the CloseUp program. It was a great opportunity to learn about our government, see the nation's capital, and meet hundreds of other students from other parts of the country. The group from Castro Valley High stayed in a hotel with other students from Northern California, Tennessee, and Missouri, which made for some very interesting culture clash.

This full week barely gave us a chance to catch our breath. The long days were packed with activities from 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. and included visits to the Senate and Supreme Court, the Vietnam Memorial, and a tour of Capitol Hill. Each day we also attended a couple of seminars ranging from domestic issues like, should the federal government be involved in education?, to seminars about the judiciary, which explained a lot of the rights that students do and don't have.

One night we traveled to Maryland to see a dinner show of the musical Mame, which was a break from all the Washington D.C. business. In the middle of the week we took a three hour bus ride to Williamsburg, Virginia, which is the restored capital of eighteenth-century Virginia and where our founding fathers created this nation. We were able to take the Metro (very much like BART) and go anywhere we wanted. This gave us a chance to visit the various Smithsonian museums and the Georgetown area. Later that evening we attended a farewell banquet and then went back to the hotel for a final dance.

Over all, the trip was excellent; if you ever have the opportunity to go on CloseUp, I highly recommend it.

Yes, that long awaited time of the year is just right around the corner. The Ski Club's annual treks to the mountains begin with their trip to Kirkwood on Dec. 6. The cost is $45, which includes transportation there and back, an all day lift ticket, and a 15% discount on ski rentals from the Wilderness Supply. A chartered bus will take the students from the front of the school Saturday morning to the snowy peaks of the Sierra.

Other trips planned are to Squaw Valley on Jan. 30-Feb.1, Alpine on Feb. 21, and to Heavenly Valley on March 13-15. Tim Santich, president of the Ski Club, adds "I am especially excited about the trips to Kirkwood and Alpine because they run a really good operation."

Logos, Art Club Formed as New Clubs on Campus

Logos. Some of you may ask what is Logos? Logos was one of the newest additions to the exciting list of student clubs on campus this year. In reality, Logos is not really a "new" club, but a revival of one that existed many years ago on this campus. Headed by Peter Brewer and Clare LePell of the English Department, the club put together a type of fine arts magazine consisting of poetry, short stories, and works of art club members.

Another attraction this year was the organization of an art club by Colleen Cowl, which artfully called itself "Club Artique." The club's activities included field trips to museums, art galleries and art studios. They also sponsored art exhibits on campus by using art from club members and art students. Both clubs added an intellectual and esthetic dimension to the school's club offerings.

Training Given to Peer Counselors

In October, training began in earnest for Castro Valley High's new peer counseling program. Peer counseling consisted of three groups: A, B, and C of anywhere from 15-18 students. Although it was anticipated that only two groups would be formed, the third group was added in order to accommodate the overflow of interested students. Altogether, there were about 51 peer counselors.

Since the first of October, the groups met for training once a week during class time in the Library Test Center. Each peer counselor received a booklet containing information on aspects of counseling including ethics and verbal and "non-verbal" communication. The new "counselors" also learned about how to present a relaxed and easy expression and how to listen and respond to other people's feelings.

Counselor Jan Steinhoff was in charge of the training which lasted from 10 to 12 weeks. "Peer counselors are excellent for students who want to talk to someone their own age about problems with family, peers, relationships, etc.," said Steinhoff.

Musical Rates as Big Hit

The Fine Arts Area of Castro Valley High presented The Pajama Game for its 1986 musical. The cast, led by Gary Henderson as Sid Sorokin and Hilary Michel as Babe Williams, showed a lot of strength performing this 1954 musical comedy.

The Pajama Game, based on the book 7 1/2 Cents by George Abbott and Richard Bissell, mixes love, hate, comedy, and seriousness into one musical. The show was very up-beat and entertaining. It showed a lot of talent and hard work from our Fine Arts Department. "The show went very well; I was impressed with the size of the audience the second night," (usually a weak night) stated Donna Russell, drama director.

Henderson displayed his singing capabilities in "A New Town is a Blue Town," "Hey There," and many other songs. Michel caught the audience with songs like "I'm Not at All in Love," and, "There Once Was a Man." Rob Six tricked the audience as "Hines," with his wild, drunken, slap-stick humor. The crowd enjoyed seeing Six flop around on stage half dressed.

Chris Obenchain did a great job portraying "Hasler," the mean little boss with a cigar hanging out of his mouth. Kristi Guest, Paul Molokides, Jennifer Friesen, and Elie Young also displayed great talent in acting, singing, and dancing.

The orchestra, led by Mr. Jack Luedders, sounded very impressive, but looked even better sporting pajama ensemble.

Last but not least, hats off to the stage crew led by Michael Gregorich. All their hard work on props, scenery, and sets really showed. I think most people were quite impressed with the knife board.

Music only an after school activity?

For Some Students Music is All

Music is a big part of everyone's life, but for a select few, music is life. Musicians are an interesting group of people. They never really fit into one type of social status, but you can always tell a musician when you see one. "Music is the essential part of a surrealistic mind," stated junior John Warrin, guitarist and vocalist.

There are other musicians as well, such as Brian Crook. Crook, who is a junior, has been playing guitar for five years and was taught by Paul Pappas. Crook has never played for a serious band, but he did jam at the First Annual Club Artique Christmas Bash. Also jamming with him were John Warrin, Gary Henderson, and Mark Strohallen.

Strohallen (another guitarist) has been playing for two years and has taught himself basically everything. He practices four hours a night, and is admired by many of his friends. Strohallen stated that his most prized possession is his "'76 les paul." Strohallen's good friend Jonas Rivera also plays guitar. Rivera owns a souped-up '84 fender strat, with a Bartolini pick-up, Floyd Rose Tremoco, and a chandler neck. He's been playing three years, and his biggest influence and hero is Edward Van Halen. Rivera states, "I don't want to be in a band until I get out of high school." He feels the need to use these next years to work on his style and technique, but he can always be found "jamming" with his best friend, Jason Marglon. Marglon, a drummer, has been playing for the last two years. His main influence is John Bonham, and he uses a Tama drum set with five cymbals. Being a successful musician is Marglon's main priority at this stage in his life. An interesting aspect of musicians is that they can all be friends, and it doesn't matter what kind of music they listen to. To a musician, music is music and they respect each other for that.

Tennis starts off year with 4 pre-season matches

Girls Tennis Ends Fun Season with Big Bang! !

On Thursday, Oct. 30, the girls' tennis team had its final match and ended its season. The season started on Sept. 23 against Arroyo, whom they beat 7-0. As of Oct. 20, they had won eight matches and lost two, against Hayward and Mt. Eden. The team also beat Tennyson 6-1 and San Lorenzo 7-0.

The key players were Amy Law, Terri Hanson, Karen Nathanson, Nancy Quan for singles; and Dyan Horikoshi and Beth Lim, and Gina Girata and Jean Liu for doubles.

Kimiya Funtanilla and Kristi Guest's resignation during the season was a great loss for the team, but everybody did a really good job. Coach Dan Barros says, "Having lost the top two players from last year, it was difficult to compete with the top teams at the top of the ladder, namely the top singles positions. Therefore, we had to rely on team depth to achieve favorable results. We had a good season, and we will be only losing two varsity players next year. The outlook for next year is very bright."

Records shattered by this year's varsity volleyball

CV Spikers Hold Onto Second Place

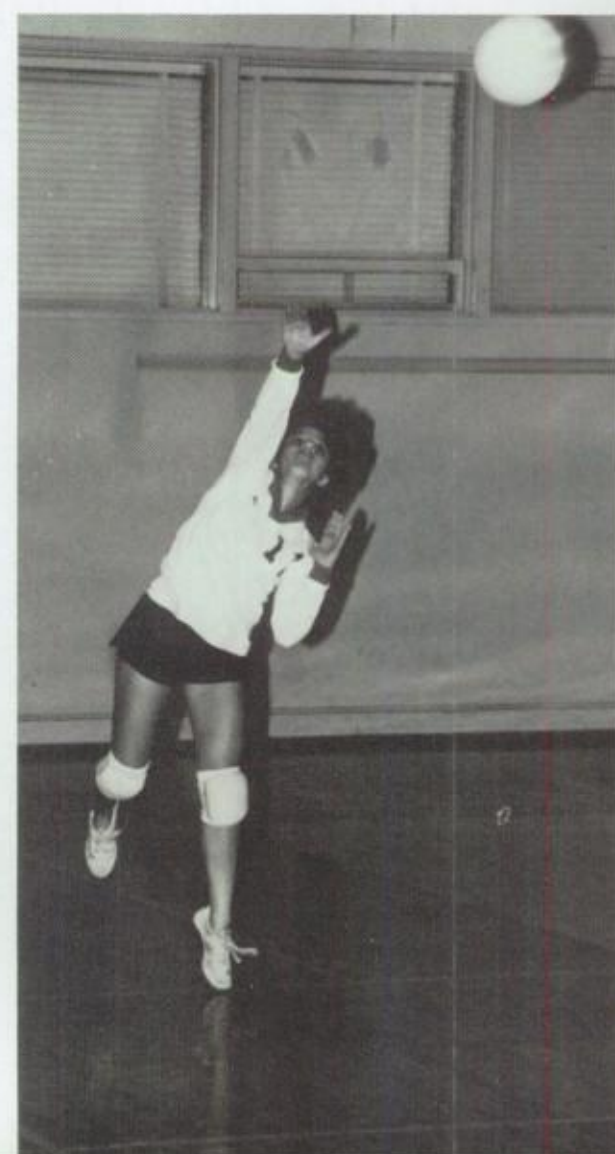

The women's varsity volleyball team is currently in second place in the Hayward Area Athletic League. This breaks both school and league history records. In the past seasons of play, the best record any C.V.H.S. volleyball team has ever reached was an even .500 average. The team has also never made it to the H.A.A.L. playoffs.

However, with the 1986-87 women's team, it is a whole different story. The women have broken all sorts of records, including the first ever defeat of San Leandro earlier this season. The team's record is currently 7-3.

The members are looking forward to being the first C.V.H.S. team to reach the playoffs on November 10-14. "As far as reaching the playoffs, we're very optimistic. As long as we keep the same level of intensity, we should not only reach the playoffs, but also play at our best," stated co-captain Yong Han. Coach Glenn Mitchell agreed: "There are three parts to a season: the first, the second, and the playoffs. In order to play at the best level, you have to start out strong and keep going strong." Mitchell attributed his team's excellent season to the strong all-around play, blocking, hitting, and serving.

Varsity Football Looks Forward to Good Season

It has already rained; there's a certain nip in the air. You know what that means, and we know what that means. It's football season again. Despite the nippy air and sometimes rainy weather, the Trojan football team is ready to battle all opponents.

This year's varsity team is looking forward to a promising year. The Trojans have five returning lettermen starters: Scott Bunney, Steve Weathers, Mark Rountree, Lance Riley, and Glen Sison. There are four coaches guiding the players this year including John Bronson, Head Coach, Tom Dahms, George Quigley, and Jerry Willis, who assist Brosnan. "Guards and tackles are as important as anyone else; everyone depends on everybody else," said Brosnan.

The Trojans will be starting this season with an exciting new quarterback, Jim Sweeney, a junior. Tight-end and linebacker, Bunney, commented, "Jim is looking good. He came up and is moving into the starting role very well. He has a strong arm and is starting to become a good leader." Rountree, center, agreed with Bunney: "He will continue to improve as our offensive line improves to give Jim more time to work his magic."

Boys varsity snags third at Artichoke Invitational

Cross Country team Runs Past Opponents

The Castro Valley cross country team, after performing better than expected against strong teams in a long pre-season, finished well in all divisions at the state's hardest invitationals. The boy's varsity finished the pre-season with an outstanding 8-1 record, suffering a close one point loss to Moreau. Aided by returning lettermen Markus Luck, Jayson Higgins, Matt Johanson, Peter DeQuincy, and Mark Wallace, as well as new talent, such as Todd Sanders, Tim Gravino, Paul Denzler, and Bjorn Hansen, the boys varsity captured third place at the competitive Half Moon Bay Artichoke Invitational.

The girls varsity was surprised by the arrival of Kristen Pye who challenged Jodi Rempel as the number-one girls' runner. Their returning letterwomen included Jodi Rempel, Jessica Warner, Donna Ferrell, Jenefer Millin, Lesly Wallace, and Tasha Cartwright. The J.V. teams, featuring such athletes as Kelly Gravino and Debbie Olson for the girls, and Matt Guerino and Tony Bazzano for the boys, will assure a strong varsity in years to come.

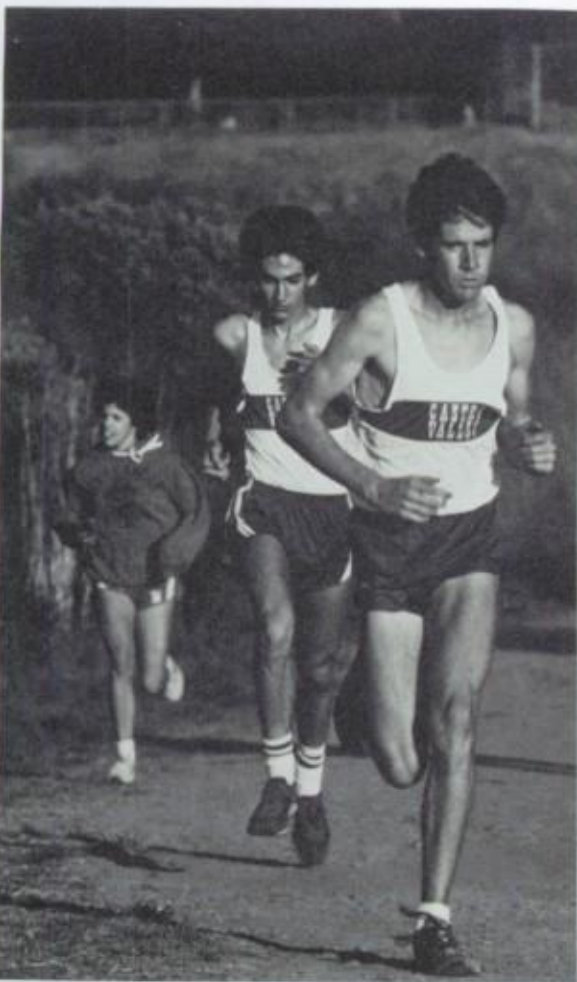

The team owes much of its success to Tim Kuta, who has been assistant coach for the team for ten years, as well as to the new head coach, Peter Brewer. The team has already destroyed San Leandro in league competition, their closet rival, and is looking to win league in all four divisions, a feat only Castro Valley has accomplished before. After league, North Coast 2A, North Coast Meet of Champions, and possibly Nor Cal finals, many runners hope to compete at Kinney Regionals.

Cross Country Team Wins Its League Championship

The cross country team ended the 1986 league season last week in a big way. Twice, in 1979 and again this year, Castro Valley became the first team to claim team victories in every division. The final meet was highlighted by outstanding individual performances, but, as Coach Peter Brewer says, "Superior depth proved to be the key to victory."

The girls' varsity was led by Jodi Rempel's fourth individual league victory, a record that will not soon be broken. She was chased by Jessica Warner and Jenefer Millin, finishing third and fifth, respectively. Valiant performances by Donna Ferrell and Deana Oden assured the team victory, 29 points ahead of the nearest competitor, Arroyo.

The boys varsity won convincingly for the fourteenth time in the last 17 years. Markus Luck and Jayson Higgins ran a remarkable race, finishing third and fifth, respectively, which put them in the all-league division. Finishing 7th, and also all-league, was Matt Johanson; and finishing in eighth place was sophomore sensation, Paul Denzler, running a time that would have made him an all-leaguer in 1985. Other high placing sophomore, stars included Todd Saunders and Mark Wallace, finishing twelfth and fifteenth. This team set a school record this season, defeating 15 teams.

Frosh-Soph Proves to be Formidable Competition

Castro Valley was the only team able even to field a complete boys frosh-soph team, but that didn't stop Matt Guerino from a fine individual win, beating Hayward High's number one varsity runner. "Matt ran like a man possessed," commented Coach Brewer. Tony Bazanno also ran impressively, finishing third. The team's secret weapon turned out to be Justin Grabanski, claiming fifth.

The girls frosh-soph captured 1-2-3 against the league, led by Debbie Olson, who finished over a minute ahead of her nearest competitor. This was Kelly Gravino, placing second, with Jill Ruebling capturing third place behind her.

Fall Athletes Finish Exciting Season with Good Efforts

Castro Valley High concluded a very exciting fall sports' season in late November. As the season has ended, the school and the student body looked back with great pride and recognized the accomplishments of the athletes and teams.

In girls' tennis action this year, the team ended the season with a record of 12-2. The doubles team of Dyan Horikoshi and Beth Lim was seeded #1 at the H.A.A.L. tournament and was named to the all-league team. The team was very well-rounded and very motivated this season.

The varsity volleyball team ended its season with a record of 12-8. The junior varsity volleyball team ended its season with a record of 15-3. Rachel Maddow was named most inspirational. "It was a lot of hard work but it was worth it!" stated Maria Peterson, JV player.

The football team ended a hard fought season with a record of 3-7. In some areas the team improved, considering it had a lot of young players. "The key to our season was inconsistency," stated Brosnan, head football coach and athletic director. "I thought that it was kind of fun, actually. I basically had a good time," added senior Juan Janer, football team member.

The cross country teams once again swept the league in both boys' and girls' competition, moving on to North Coast Finals.

Varsity Soccer Trounces Its Way to North Coast Playoffs

In the past few seasons, the varsity soccer team has finished short of first by only a handful of points. This year was a different story. For the first time since 1972, the team swept the league title with a near perfect record of 10-0-4 and 15-1-6 overall. Among some of the highlights of the year was a pre-season game against College Park when C.V. blasted five goals in the last half to win the game. The team also won the Bishop O'Dowd Christmas Tournament by defeating San Leandro in the final game. Towards the end of the season, Scott Berglin, senior left wing, gave last minute scores to sustain the zero in the loss column.

The Trojans faced the Hayward Farmers in the first game of the H.A.A.L. league playoffs. Paul Linney and Berglin each scored to secure the win and advance to the finals. The next day in the championship game, Paul Hayden scored on a penalty kick late in the game, which was to be the only goal of the match. With that win, the Trojans advanced to the North Coast Section Playoffs. According to Berglin, "We got some lucky breaks, but in the end we proved to be the more consistent team." The J.V. soccer team also showed strength by going undefeated in the regular season. The strong, younger team will be a credit to the varsity team in future seasons.

Girls Soccer Closes Season Empty Handed

The varsity soccer team had another disappointing end to its season, but, all in all, the players had a great year. The young team showed its aggressiveness but may have been cheated out of playing time. The team was simply too big. Coach Art Watson explained, "Anytime you have that many players on the roster (more than 20), it's too difficult to teach them to work together as a team." The problem was that former coach, Bob Dowell, recruited cross country runners thinking that he could use their stamina and teach them soccer skills. It was a good idea, but most of the recruits were seniors with no soccer experience. The result was a large bench with many bored-to-death spectators wearing uniforms.

The players who did participate gave it all they had. Junior forward, Cindy Carlin, named all-league, and Jenny Lewis, a freshman attacker, were responsible for most of the goals of the season. The ace defense pulled through for most of the season which was a key factor in most of the games. The girls' team is expected to be a tough competitor in the up and coming seasons with its young, aggressive players.

Team improves over last year

Basketball Team Has Challenging Season

Early in the season the girls' basketball team had two wins and six losses, defeating Arroyo and Hayward High school, losing to Sunset, Tennyson, San Leandro, Mt. Eden, and also to San Leandro High School twice. As a sophomore, Jennifer Albright felt that this season's experience on the varsity team helped improve her skills despite the team's non-impressive records of wins and losses. Last year their record was one win and thirteen losses, so the team improved.

Jennifer Keltner, the only freshman on the varsity squad, predicted with confidence that the team would win three out of the remaining four games. Pam Gill, Jennifer Albright, Jennifer Borad, and Kristin Davis were the star players who lead the team.

The team was one of the most hard-working teams in the league, and although they did not win as many games as they had hoped to, they are still optimistic about the next year.

Swiss student, Schaller, is big surprise

Varsity Basketball Exhibits Unconventional Style in '86-'87

Upcourt comes the pass, ball spinning silently, into the hands of David Schaller. The crowd is hushed in anticipation as #32 dribbles through three opposing players. He leaps into the air and rebelliously slams the basketball through the hoop one-handed. The crowd goes wild. Skeptics said the Trojans would be inexperienced due to the number of new players this year. Coach Oscar Sakamoto disagrees, and in their first three games, they have proven the skeptics wrong.

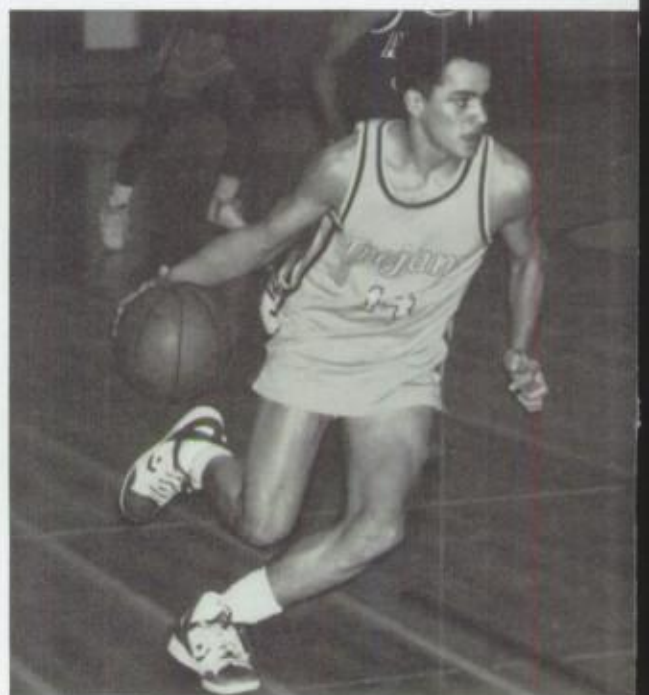

In their first game, Castro Valley defeated Salesian High School. After a ten point loss to Monte Vista, C.V. came back with a win over Kennedy High School, Dec. 9, 60-58. Helping the varsity team to its second victory was Lance Riley with 24 points, and strong play from the entire team, including a slam dunk from Swiss foreign exchange student, Schaller.

There are four returning lettermen this year, including juniors, Lance Riley, and Steve Shepard, and senior team captains, Tim Santich and Rich Fregulia. Other varsity members include Rob Scott, Chad Burns, Jason Alga, Rolf Kilian, and Schaller. Coach Sakamoto is optimistic for the 1986-87 season and says that, "Although we aren't very big or fast, we still have a good chance at play-offs." As for strengths and weaknesses, Coach Sakamoto replied, "We can only be as good as our defense and our rebounding."

In December, the varsity basketball team participated in the Del Oro tournament. Aside from playing very tough teams, they won the first game and lost the next two. Del Oro beat the team by only one point and eventually won the tournament. "To be successful, a team has to have more than just good players; they have to have togetherness which is a quality of our team," stated Santich.

What is the key to teams' success?

Frosh-Shop, JVs Shine in Pre Season

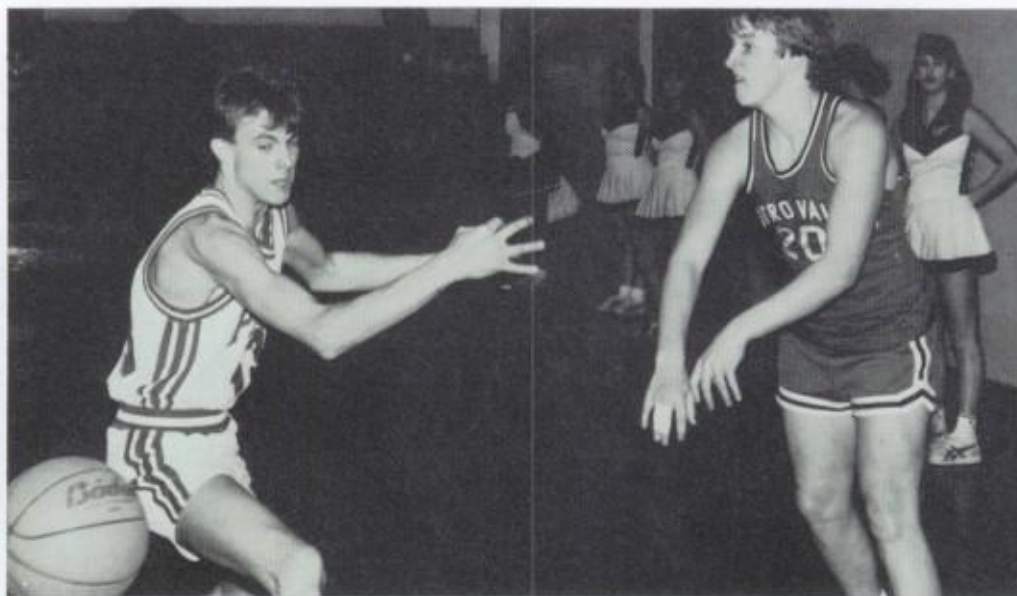

We don't usually hear much about J.V. or Frosh-Soph athletics, but it is impossible to ignore this year's Frosh-Soph and J.V. basketball teams. The all-freshman Frosh-Soph team, led by Jeff Barnes, coach of two years, has earned a rather impressive record during the past weeks. During pre-season play, the boys captured six wins and bowed down to only one team, when they were missing three players. But these head-turning numbers don't stop with the end of pre-season. The guys have put three more victories in their win column and have not allowed the loss column to increase.

If a student were to attend a Frosh-Soph game, he might think he was either in the wrong gym or in a time zone of the past, for the jerseys of the team bear the name "Spartans" rather than "Trojans." So, what sets this team apart from their contenders? According to their coach, it is the inside shots that give them their average ten point victory margin.

Similar to the Frosh-Soph, the J.V. team is having a good year. They started the league off with a 4-2 record and have been undefeated in their past three games. Many of the Trojans' points are made from the Caillier twins' "exceptional quickness," and rebounding from St. Denis and Castain. Both coaches agree that the teams will finish well in league, but that the tougher games are in the weeks to come.

CV Wrestlers Place 6-0 in League Play

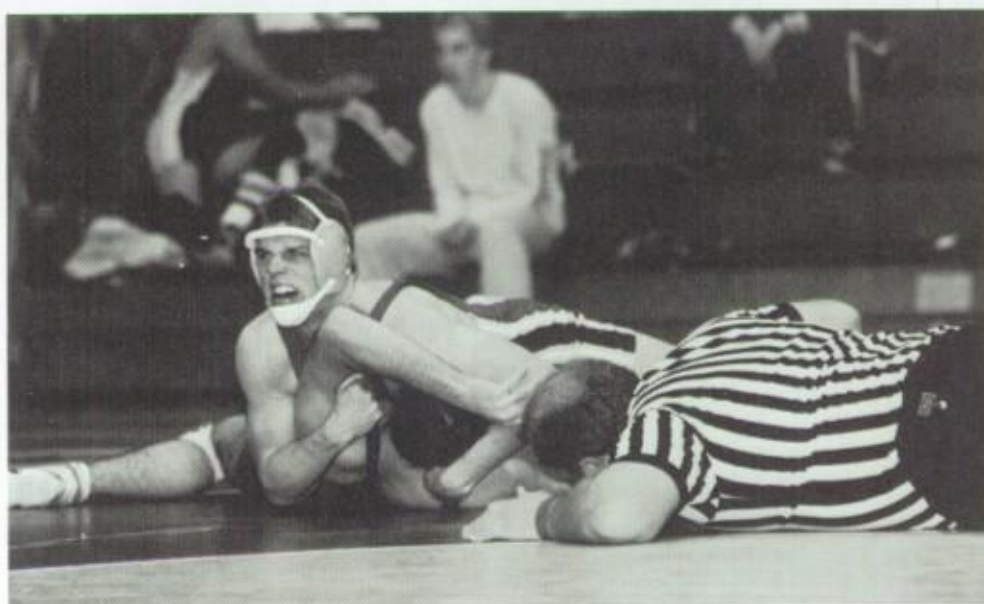

The Castro Valley High wrestling team has had an incredible season this year. To date, they have been 6-0 in league matches and are planning to go 7-0 with a win against Tennyson. "I think the Tennyson match will be a massacre!" says Darren Schackly, senior and captain of the varsity team.

There have been several wrestlers with outstanding seasons this year. Marc Hayes (114 lbs), Tim Louis (121 lbs), and Charley Richardson (140 lbs) all have about 20 wins each. A first year wrestler on the squad, Pat Cockrill (245 lbs), has done well this year by beating the defending H.A.A.L. champion in the 245 division from Arroyo. The team's major strength comes from its lighter wrestlers (114's to 154's).

Coach Dan Masengill predicts that this year's team will take the H.A.A.L. tournament, and since the team only has one senior it should be extremely strong next year.

Wrestling, soccer capture HAAL titles

North Coast Makes Exciting End for Soccer, Wrestling

Winter sports finished, but not without a taste of glory. Both boys' soccer and wrestling made it to the North Coast Section play-offs. The giant obstacles which had to be overcome throughout the season were not without significance. In fact, both teams captured the H.A.A.L. title with an undefeated performance.

The boys' soccer team made its first appearance ever in the North Coast play-offs after claiming league's first place with an undefeated record. This is the team's only second title in the league's history, the first being in 1972 when they also went undefeated with a record of 12-0-0. The Trojans were eliminated in the first round of the play-offs when they lost to Mission San Jose 3-0.

The team had several all-league selections, including a unanimous all-league M.V.P. vote going to Paul Linney, senior forward. First team selections went to Kevin Yamada, halfback; Dale Rawlinson, fullback; Paul Hayden, halfback; and Paul Linney. Second team members were Scott Berglin, forward; Eric Jacobsen, fullback; and David Smith, goalie. The Honorable Mention was awarded to Mike Biagini.

North Coast is nothing new to the Castro Valley's wrestling team. The team had an incredible season and claimed the league title with another perfect 7-0 record. Seven wrestlers were sent to the North Coast Section play-offs. They were Tim Louis, Mark Hayes, Aaron Fitzpatrick, Jeff Mar, Mitch Stuber, Pat Cockrill (the 245 lb. weight class champion), and Charley Richardson. Though most of them were knocked out in the first round, Mar was able to capture two victories before losing to a highly seeded wrestler.

Spaeth Takes Sabbatical Leave to Complete PhD

Principal, Nancy Spaeth, left Castro Valley High second semester in order to complete work on her doctorate degree in Educational Administration from U.C. Berkeley. Spaeth has been enrolled in a doctoral program since 1980. She has finished her course work and will begin work on her thesis. It may relate to the "Cash for CAP" program, and it will be focused on the area of incentives and motivation for school success. She was also involved with PACE (Policy Analysis for California Education), a program involved in research for the legislature. Although Spaeth was not on campus daily, she was still active in a district-wide five year curriculum committee, teacher evaluations, and various issues such as the budget, while on leave.

Jerry Green served as acting principal during her absence. The district hired a temporary assistant principal, Katey Talbot to take Green's place. She was one of the top candidates interviewed last October to fill Al Honda's vacancy. Talbot has taught various courses ranging from A.P. American History to P.E. at Notre Dame and Woodside High Schools, and Hawaii Preparatory Academy. She, too, is currently enrolled in a doctoral program at U.C. Berkeley.

Another new face on the administrative scene this year was Craig McClelland. McClelland graduated from San Francisco State with a degree in psychology. He was a special education administrator for seven years in St. Helena, Napa County, one year at a middle school and six at a high school. For his master's internship he served as an assistant principal at Terra Linda in San Rafael, before coming to Castro Valley High School in that capacity.

Did you know that we produce 30 cans of trash every day? Fourteen out of the 30 cans are produced at lunchtime from the cafeteria, kitchen, and the courtyard, taking our helpful custodians one and a half hours to clean up. The garbage consists of little catsup and mustard packets, cans, lunch plates, candy wrappers, and so on.

Custodians find the 500 hall clean, and 200 and 600 halls the most dirty. Also, in the gym, gum is found sticking on the floor. Some of the comments from the custodians include: "We want you to realize what's being done for you, and appreciate it," says Brad Maloney. Lucy Camara comments, "Take pride in your school. The most important thing we want to say is to use the garbage cans. There are plenty of them. It will be so much help." The custodians concluded their comments saying they really wanted to be our friends and to be called by their first names.

Eight countries represented by foreign students Foreign Students Exchange Thoughts on Here and There

Have you often wondered what it would be like to live in another country other than the United States? Well, this year we have students from Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, Finland, England, Japan, Germany and the Netherlands; and they claim that the similarities outnumber the differences, but there are noticeable differences.

David Schaller, 17, states that, "In Switzerland we have no school athletic teams. We have to play for either our town or a club. Swiss teenagers don't give big parties like they do here; we usually go to a disco on the weekends. I admire the fighting spirit in sports Americans possess." Jay Cary, 17, reveals, "There are so many people who wear 501's and Reeboks; you wouldn't see that in England. It's more casual here. And on the weekends, English kids usually hit the clubs."

Says Swedish exchange student, Marie Dahlfors, 17, "In Sweden there are no drugs at the parties, but the drugs that are causing the problems are cocaine and heroin. The people are friendlier here and the beaches are really nice." Mikko Sirkia, 17, from Finland, had a lot to say about America and Finland. Sirkia stated with shock, "In America people don't wear socks; back in Finland everyone wears socks, even in the summer. There is so much junk food here; there is hardly any back home. And we have HEAVY parties where mass quantities of vodka is consumed. And our national pastime is sitting in saunas." Norwegian student, Bjorn Hansen, 17, reveals, "Long hair is in style for guys and English bands are most popular with teens in Norway."

Rolf Killian, 17, from Germany stated that, "Germany is very similar to America. The drinking age is 18, but you can buy it at any age. There is also more space in the cities than there is in the German cities." Mika Yoshino, 17, from Japan finally added, "We never have homework in Japan, but we don't get to choose our classes either; they are picked for us. There are a lot more choices in America."

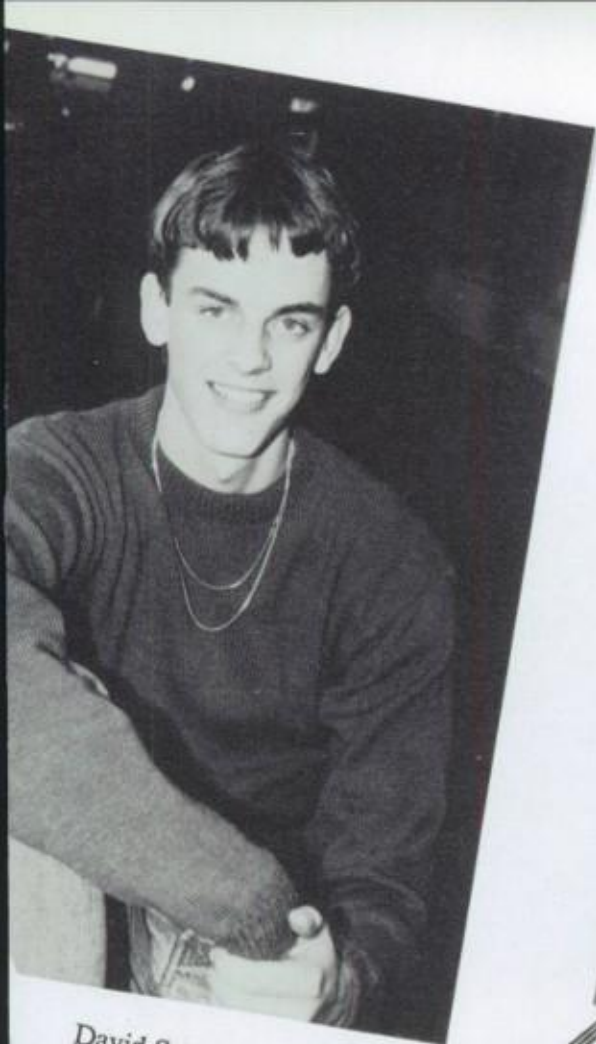

The average drinking and driving age in Europe and Japan is 18, but the drinking age is usually never enforced. All of the students agreed that the weather and the people are the best things about the U.S. If you want to know more about the exchange students and countries, please don't hesitate to go up to them and introduce yourself, and give them our American hospitality.

Senior Class Cheer

Senior Sahara number one!
All you others move out of the way,
The Senior class is here to stay!

The Flower Children are here to stay
Next year they will have their way
The Freshmen they are movin' on in
Next year they are gonna win

Hey, you sophomores, in those tights,
You have the big tents and all the big lights.
You're playing circus in high school
But come on kids, that just ain't cool

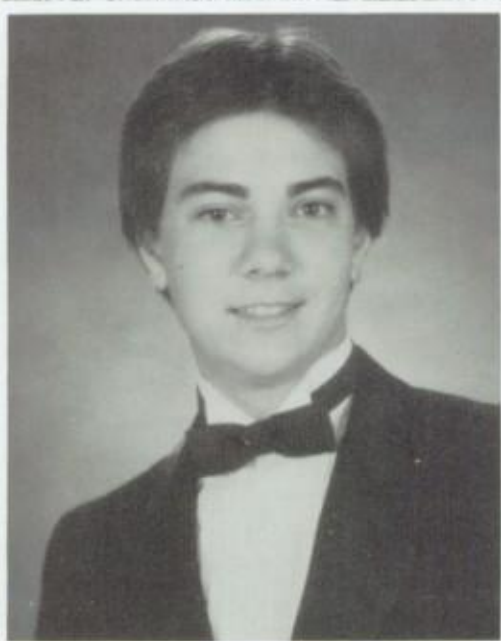

Junior class let's get things straight.
All your armour looks real great.
You're going in circles at the Round Table,
Trying so hard and acting so able
But that's o.k., we're great this year
And if you're willing to lend us an ear,
We'll show you how to get things done,
So next year you will have some fun.

Sunset Falcons are gonna lose
But hey, we know that's old news.
Our Trojan spirit is gonna win
The other team is going to give in.

Senior Sahara having fun!
Senior Sahara number one!
All you others move out of the way,
The Senior Class is here to stay !!!

Junior Class Song

Tune: "Puff the Magic Dragon"

The kingdom of the Juniors
In the land of C. V.
Is proud to show its spirit off
To everyone it sees.

His majesty, King Greg
Is the ruler of the land
And together we will conquer all
United we will stand.

Nobles, Knights, and Horsemen
Lift their heads in pride,
Peasants who have lost their way,
Let spirit be your guide.

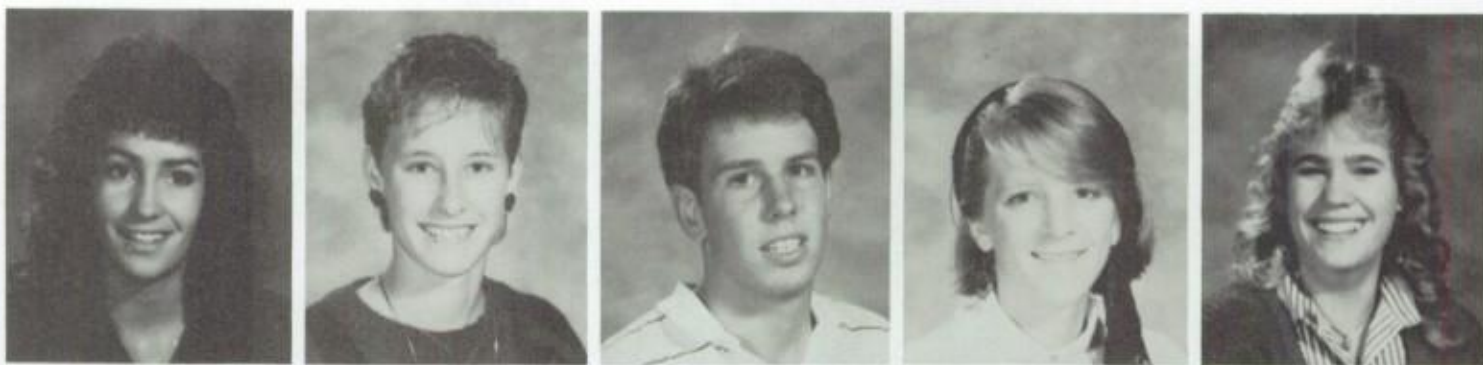

There's a moral to all stories,
So let this fact be known:
If we ALL join hand-in-hand
True spirit we've shown!

Junior Class Cheer

Medieval times are here again;
We have one goal and that's to win.
Peasants, serfs, and nobles too,
If you get in our way,
We'll joust you through.

Hey you hippies over there,
Get new clothes and cut your hair.
88's got spirit, you do not--
Flower-power is all you've got.

Ladies and Gents, the circus is in town,
Not lions, not tigers, but big fat clowns.
You're not freshmen no more,
So you think you're bad,
But compared to us, you're pretty sad.

Senior Sahara, you've got class,
But it belongs in the desert and we'll kick your-
Ni ni ni ni ni ("There's a place in France" tune)

The Round Table's here from the ages dark,
And the Junior Class has made its mark.
Peasants, serfs, and nobles too,
If you get in our way we'll joust you through.
And if you think you're number one,
Just recall who pulled the sword from the stone.

Sophomore Class Song

Tune: "76 Trombones"

Chorus: (repeat after each verse)

Sophomores of 89' lead rally day,
Seniors and Juniors fall close behind.
They were followed by rows and rows
Of freshmen so we're told,
Who of course were lagging far behind.

As for the Senior Class of '87
Senior Sahara give it a rest.
We know you've tried and tried
And shown your senior pride
But there's still no competing with the best

To the poor, poor Juniors who tried the most
Your Junior Round Table is turning square
We know it's hard to fight
When victory is out of sight
But go ahead and try if you dare

And last but not least our poor Freshman class
We know being a Freshman is not an easy job
But getting thrown in jail for Trying to "save the whales"
Is not the way to get on the top.

(Repeat chorus one time)

We've got spirit and you can hear it

Seniors and Juniors can't be the best
'Cause we're #1 and better than the rest

Hey you Freshmen, with those funny flowers
Don't forget your diaper rash powder

The Sophomore Circus is here in town
And our victory will make you frown.

Bozo, Bozo, he's our man
If he can't do it no one can.

Stomp, Stomp, clap.

Freshman Class Song

"Hey, Hey We're The Freshmen"
Tune: Theme from the "Monkees"

Here we come,
First year at CV,
You think we're no competition,
But you just wait and see.

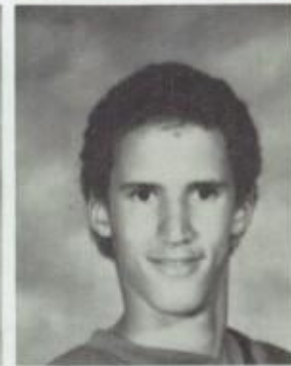

Chorus: (repeat after each verse)
Hey, hey we're the Freshmen,
We may look young to you,
But we've got the flower power,
And we're coming after you.

Hey, hey all you Sophomores,
You think you've been around,
But you're too busy clowning,
So take your show out of town!

Hey, hey all you Juniors,
KING ARTHUR'S DEAD!!!!!!!

Hey, hey all you Seniors,
We're sure gonna' miss you next year,
We'd like to thank you for your help,
So Freshmen,
GIVE 'EM A CHEER!!!!!!!

Get rid of the circus, round table, desert, too
'Cause we're the new generation,
And we're gonna' smother you!

Freshman Class Cheer

We're the Freshmen and we're here to say,
 We live for peace in this world today

Hey you, Sophomore Circus
 You're just clowning around
 You think you can chase us
 Out of our groovy town.
 But find another Big Top
 Because you're all going down.

All we are saying is spread love around.

Hey you, royal Juniors
 You're no better than those clowns
 Your heads are stuffed too tightly,
 In those funky crowns
 So get another kingdom
 Cause in your moats you'll drown.

All we are saying is spread love around.

Hey you, Seniors from the desert,
 With the camels all around,
 The heat is getting to you
 And your heads are in the ground,
 We had to tell you sometime
 That we're gonna strike you down

All we are saying is spread love around.

Peace and love and happiness
 Is what we want today,
 So you Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors
 Might as well go away.

For Mike

There are some people who touch our lives and disappear,

but when we are lucky, there are few who make an everlasting impression.

You are a special person and a unique bestfriend. When my life was hard you were there. You took the time to show that you care.
We have made it through hell and back, my friend, because we stuck together.

You can see inside me, like no other, and read my mind. As I do you.

I love you very much, not just as a friend,
but as a brother.

Love, Andi

For Andi

I've moved a few boxes,
and changed a flat tire:

I was there when you were happy,
I was there when you were sad.

We've had some good times,
and we've had our bad.

I've seen you healthy and boy have I seen you sick!

But if I had it all to do over again,
you're the one I'd pick.

I mean what are bestfriends for?

I Love You.

Mikey(RSTB)

(hi mom)

To: Jenn, Aim, Elaine, Gina, Steph & thanks for being the greatest friends in the whole world.
To Janic - Your the bestest friend a person could ever ask for. I Love All Of You Guys!
Love, Christine

Angie - Thanks for always being there, except when you weren't home, j.k. Remember, if no one shows up Nick will come. And there's always time for a cool
Corona, hold the tears. Love & Laughs,
(St. Ends) K.C.

To a real cute kid: JOHN HENDERSON.
CONGRATULATIONS! You've made 1987 an exciting year for both of us. Now It's your turn to conquer your dreams. I hope they all come true.

Love always,
Lisa

TO ALL MY BUDDIES: YOU ALL ARE THE BEST.
WE ARE GOING TO HAVE A GREAT SUMMER AS LONG AS WE STICK TOGETHER. THANKS FOR ALL THE RIDES AND ALL THE CARING.
LOVE ALWAYS - Elaine

BEN MAXWELL-I'VE REALLY LOVED HAVING YOU AS A FRIEND DURING THE PAST 6-7 YRS., YOU'RE THE BEST GUY A GIRL COULD EVER KNOW. I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER ALL OF THE GREAT TIMES WE'VE HAD.
LOTS-A-LUV, TAMMY P.

To "The Gang"-Thank you all for being my friends. I love you all!!

Love always, Your Motel 6 and Taxi Services-

My best friend is someone special.
She is someone I can depend on.
She gives me confidence.
She makes me happy.
She has a special smile.
It lets me know she's thinking trouble.
We've shared a lot together.
Birthdays, clothes, car accidents,

LOVE & FRIENDSHIP,
TAMARA P.

Love,
Jenn!

To all of my friends. We have had many unforgettable times. You guys mean everything to me. I will always love you guys. When I look back on my high school years I will always remember our times together. You all are the best friends that I ever had.

Love & Friendship Always
Jennifer

JEFF PAUL MURRAY
REACH YOUR GOALS !!

Dear Dave,
Up all night..."let's go to convenient." Remember Markus'?
I'm going to miss all of the grilled cheese sandwiches, pizza, and let's not forget all of those delicious omlets!
Hey Mr. Socks, "Don't you forget about me" I LOVE YOU!

everything. I'm gonna miss you.
u luv Silvino I luv Rich

B.F.F. luv you
De

To Gnat, Antwa, Duem Bo Muff + Bubbles,
A friend is one to share my thoughts who will be there when it hurts alot one that wants me to do so good when I don't and I really should
A friend is one who will stay awhile one that will give a helpful smile
you are a friend so good to me
I hope we will be that way for ETERNITY!
Love Always + Forever
Chig Bo Rag

To my dear friends Gnat, Chig, & Antwa, never forget martumms and the cherries

I wouldn't have made it this far without you. Thank you for being my friend!
I will miss you Love ya Katja

To Christine: Don't forget diamond voice, Astronomer, icky feeling, egg whites, and that you will always be my best friend! Love ya-Aimee
To Jenn: Don't forget our t.v. Guide guys, the taxi/restaurant/hotel, the tee-top Camaro the night of "Open the door, I got to spit!", and that you are a very special friend to me love, "panick button"
To Gina: Thank for finding Cedar Point, and being such a sweet friend. Love ya-Aimee
To Elaine: Don't go to Beauty school-you're too smart. I love ya-Aimee
To Janine: Let's not lock your mom out anymore!! Love, the backstabber (Aimee)
To Christine: Nothing is on your skirt!! (Aim)

STEVEN,
I REMEMBER OUR YOUNGER DAYS,
NO ONE CAN TAKE THAT AWAY.
AND THE SPECIAL TIMES THAT WE SHARED,
THEY'LL ALWAYS BE THERE.
YOU MADE MY HEART TINGLE,
AND MY EYE'S TWINKLE.
YOU BROUGHT SO MUCH PLEASURE,
THAT I WILL TREASURE.
BUT THE MAIN PART,
IS THAT IN MY HEART,
THERE IS ALWAYS A PLACE FOR YOU.

LOVE ALWAYS,
STEPHANIE

CONGRATULATIONSTOO!!!

Scott,

Our wish is for you to know the joy, happiness and laughter throughout your life that you have brought into the lives of those who know and love you.

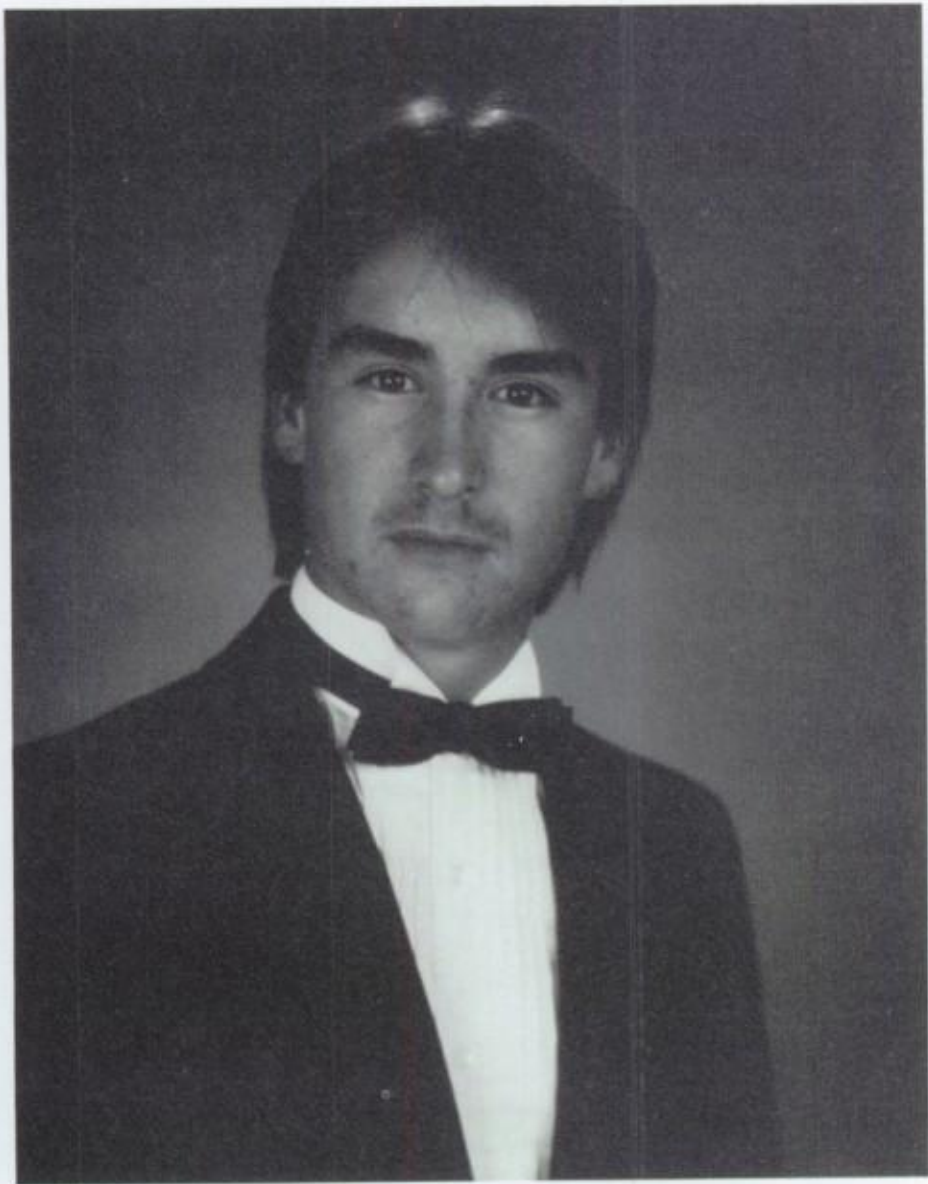

It is now time for you to go forth and climb your own mountains. Always remember that we will be there whenever you need us or you need a safe harbor.

We love you and we'll always be proud of you. Always remain the fine person you are today and you will never lack for friends or people who love you.

Love,
Mom, Jeff, Grandma,
Grandad, and Nana

P.S. Always have the strength to march to your own drummer.

CONGRATULATIONS

SAM -

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The 1987 Yearbook Staff would like to thank the entire Castro Valley High School Staff for its cooperation throughout the year.

Our appreciation goes to all the students and particularly the following students who were photographed for the "How to Recognize" page: Brett Anchondo, Erin Anderson, Bonnie Barr, Bob Bartlome, Elizabeth Combs, Leisl Creer, Gina Freschi, Christie Hahn, Jennifer Keltner, Kevin Kitchell, Janine Laux, Kristin Pye, Jamie Ruebling, Greg Trevizo, Rodney Tucknott, Mike Vawter. Thank you for all of your time.

Our thanks also goes to The Olympian for supplying us with the many news articles used in our copy blocks.

Without the help of our official school photographer, we would never have the photographs needed to meet our deadlines. For this, we are grateful beyond words to Roy Garibaldi, Eric Herrera, and those who work in the studio.

Our gratitude goes out to Ms. Polk and the Scheduling Office for supplying us with locator cards and the many computer printouts.

We also want to thank the 200 wing custodian, Dave Elliott, for putting up with our messes around deadline time.

Also, to all of the club advisors and music teachers thanks for their assistance with picture identification.

A very, very special thanks to Fred Wallace for his design of our cover and endsheets.

And finally, our deepest appreciation to Ed Farewell, our publishing representative, who constantly watched out for our interests. We'll miss you!

darlene,
Well, arnt
you glad we don't work at B.K.
anymore- isn't that special. Well, I'm outta here and you've got one more year- ha-ha. I'll come visit next year. Have a good life. Love ya
Cathy Ciesla

Darlene,
I am so glad I met you and we've gotten to be such good friends. Well, we're leaving you, but we'll still be around. I'll pick you up at least once a week next year for lunch. You better make it til next June, this summer is gonna be killer. We'll gonna party down! Everyone at the beach better watch out for us. ~~The~~ yard teasers! Well, since this is my last unmarried summer I'll have to make it the best. You are a great friend and we're gonna go out a lot this summer.
Good luck with the guys, hopefully you'll find one that's sincere, otherwise just be a big tease will all the fine guys! Your friend,
Angel

P.S. Don't forget

Darlin:
Ya doing? I'm so glad ya are! We'll become one such good friends! You're keep all in my touch person!
And miss you and Mary the love, sweet and Mary the party!! you're a good luck you'll always have a wonderful and have a he! you one! stay a 881-1154 Good one! friend and sweetie

P.S. DON'T GO IN THE
SUN TOO MUCH EITHER!

Love
you much,
Stacy Miller

Darlene,
Higa babes,
well what's new
with you. I Love
your car. Its hella bad. I'm glad that we are still good friends.
Have a good summer
and give me a call and maybe we can do

Dear ~~you~~ ^{opp} ~~mean~~ (I mean) Darlene, what can I say? you're an air-head. (JK)
you're really a sweet-heart.
I'm glad you sat next to me in English 1st semester. It was really fun. (when you weren't sleeping)
Have a great summer.
gimme a ring (537-7753)
Love ya!
Jeri

Darlene,
well we've come a long way baby. all the way from Marshall school to CU High. Next year we'll be seniors and rule the school.
Have a great summer and enjoy
all of life's adventures.
Love ya,
Koyak

Darlene, I + WAs nice having you in a class! Have a great summer! PARETY!
Because you came back to school a junior. Love ya
